

Oxford School District School Board Meeting Recap

Highlights of November 2018 Regularly Scheduled Meeting on November 26, 2018

District Recognizes Growth on 2017-2018 MAAP Assessment

Forty-four students were recognized for their performance on the Mississippi Academic Assessment Program (MAAP) tests given in the spring of 2018. Certificates were presented to those students whose scores grew two or more proficiency levels in Math and English Language Arts from their previous year's test scores! Read full story.

The Oxford School District is in the process of completing the Mississippi Department of Education District of Innovation Application. The application gives school districts relief from certain accreditation standards in order to encourage innovative practices in Mississippi schools. The Board of Trustees voted in support of the application by Oxford School District to become a District of Innovation. Notification will be received by the end of February if chosen by MDE. The application process is being led by Assistant Superintendent, Bradley Roberson.
