ABOUT THE COMPOSER

Johannes Chrysostomus Wolfgangus Theophilus Mozart, better known as Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, lived from 1756-1791. He was born into a musical family where he and his sister, Anna Maria, studied violin and keyboard with their father, Leopold Mozart. Word quickly spread of the musical prodigy - the boy wonder - Mozart. By age six, he and his sister were performing for royalty and noblemen across Europe. At age eight Mozart composed his first symphony. By his death at 35, Mozart had written over 600 musical works including symphonies, operas, and choral music.

ABOUT THE MUSIC

Of the twenty Masses that Mozart composed in Salzburg, none is as well known or as popular as the Mass in C, K. 317, or Coronation Mass. At the age of 23, Mozart was commissioned by the Archbishop of Salzburg to write an Easter Mass in honor of the Coronation of the miraculous Virgin of the Maria Plain sanctuary. The Coronation Mass premiered 243 years ago on Easter Sunday, April 4, 1779. Due to the works' popularity, it was performed for the coronation of Leopold II, King of Bohemia, where it earned its nickname.
